

Jacob Haas

200 Hartle Court. Apt. B | (715) 316-2544 | jacob_haas@live.com

Summary:

My name is Jacob Haas and I am pursuing a career in front end web development. I have been dabbling in web design since junior high earning myself a Webmaster award freshman year of high school. I have exemplary communication skills, am highly detail oriented, and can manage time efficiently.

Education:

University of California - Berkeley

Coding Bootcamp: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, MySQL, MongoDB, Python: Django, Node.js, Express, MERN Stack

University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire

B.S. Geology: Algebra 1 & 2, Calculus 1 & 2, Physics 103, Earth History, ArcGIS 1 & 2, Remote Sensing of the Environment

Technical Skills:

3-6 strongest projects, with brief description, languages used, and direct link to code

Work Experience:

Peet's Coffee - Shift Lead

Napa, CA | Feb. 2018 - Present

- Manage front of house operations
- Help team meet sales goals and daily expectations
- Resolve customer concerns

United States Postal Service - Clerk

Marshfield, WI | Jan. 2016 - Jun. 2017

- Provide shipping and
- Manage Satellite Post Offices as needed
- Perform various I.T. and clerical tasks

University of Wisconsin - Research Assistant

Eau Claire, WI | Jul. 2013 - May 2014

- Collect and catalog rock samples in the field
- Quantify mineral percentages and identify potential sources of silicosis
- Create sample maps in ArcGIS and present findings to various audiences

Skills:

Achievements:

Geologic Society of America

3rd place poster presentation for undergraduate research, North-Central GSA.

Publications

Regional petrographic analysis of Cambrian sandstone in Minnesota and Wisconsin: Quantifying mineralogy and potential sources of airborne particulate matter within “frac sand” targets

Jacob Haas